Development of SSIs

2106. SHRI S. ANBALAGAN: Will the Minister of SMALL SCALE INDUSTRIES be pleased to state:

(a) the rate of growth of Small Scale Industries during each of the last three years, figures for all India and State-wise;

(b) whether it is fact that development of Small Scale Industries is given a step monthery treatment by Governments at the Centre and the States when compared to the large scale and medium scale industries, and

(c) if so, the concrete steps proposed to be taken by the Central Government for the development of Small Scale Industries in the country. So as to help the jobless enthusiastic youth of the country?

THE MINISTER OF SMALL SCALE INDUSTRIES (SHRI MAHAVIR PRASAD): (a) Based on the revised Index of Industrial Production for the Small Scale Industries (SSIs) sectors, with base year 2001-02, the rate of growth of production of SSIs in the country during 2003-4, 2004-05 and 2005-06 have been 9.64%, 10.88% and 12.32% respectively. The State-wise information is not maintained centrally.

(b) and (c) Promotion and development of SSIs is primarily the responsibility of State Governments and Union Territory Administrations. To assist the States/UTs and supplement their efforts in this regard, the Central Government implements several schemes/ programmes for promotion and development of SSIs. These, include, inter alia.

(i) facilitating availability of credit mainly through public sector banks/ institutions, (ii) assistance for (a) technology upgradation, (b) marketing, (c) integrated infrastructural development, (d) comprehensive need-based development of clusters, and (iii) entrepreneurship development.

— Further, the Government has enacted the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, 2006 to facilitate the promotion and development of micro, small and medium enterprises and enhancement of their competitiveness. The Act has come into effect from 2nd October, 2006.

— Besides, Government implements the Pradhan Mantri Rozgar Yojana (PMRY) and Rural Employment Generation Programme (REGP) specifically designed for creating self-employment opportunities.
